Daingerfield High School is not just a building but a symbol of unification and life. Through studies, organizations, and activities, DHS unites students in an everlasting friendship. Happy moments, sad moments, excitement of important games, feelings of success - all of these make up the traditions and environment seen at DHS.

Keeping this in mind, the 1970 DEN has attempted to record the happenings that demonstrate the beat, reactions, and reflections of LIFE at Daingerfield High.

Mrs. Rena McMichael

Mrs. Rena McMichael, after 44 years of teaching in the public schools, is retiring. During her years as a classroom teacher, Mrs. McMichael has filled many and varied roles. The last few years, Mrs. McMichael has taught Freshman English. The students, faculty, and administration will miss Mrs. McMichael as a teacher and the knowledge, know-how and perseverance she displays will be greatly missed in the English department. DHS is reluctant to say good-bye to such a fine teacher as Mrs. McMichael, but we wish her good luck and much happiness in the future.

Mr. W. E. Thomas

The teacher who qualified a team to win the National Championship for Land Judging is retiring. Mr. W. E. Thomas has taught agriculture for 44 years, and has decided it is time to close the book on his teaching career. During the years Mr. Thomas has taught, his Ag boys have won numerous awards and trophies. Among these honors are: five times sweepstakes winner of the Texarkana Jr. College Judging Contest, two times second place winner in the State Forestry Judging Contest, and first, second, and third place winners in the Four County Soil Conservation Essay Contest. Mr. Thomas has been recognized state-wide as an outstanding agriculture teacher by being chosen the Teacher of the Year in Forestry in 1969. As Mr. Thomas brings to a close this chapter in his life, he can see living proof that his efforts have borne fruit by looking at some of the trees and shrubs his Ag boys have planted. With such memories and honors as these, DHS adds our best wishes for a happy future.

The Dangerfield High School band, under the direction of their encouraging and well-qualified teacher, Mr. Goodson, has accomplished much during the year. As they work diligently every day, their individual skills advance. Broadening their individual talents to meet the demands of a group effort, they gained experience at the football games and concerts. Through perseverance, the band members have improved as individual players, group players, and accompanists.

Student Council Actively Serves DHS

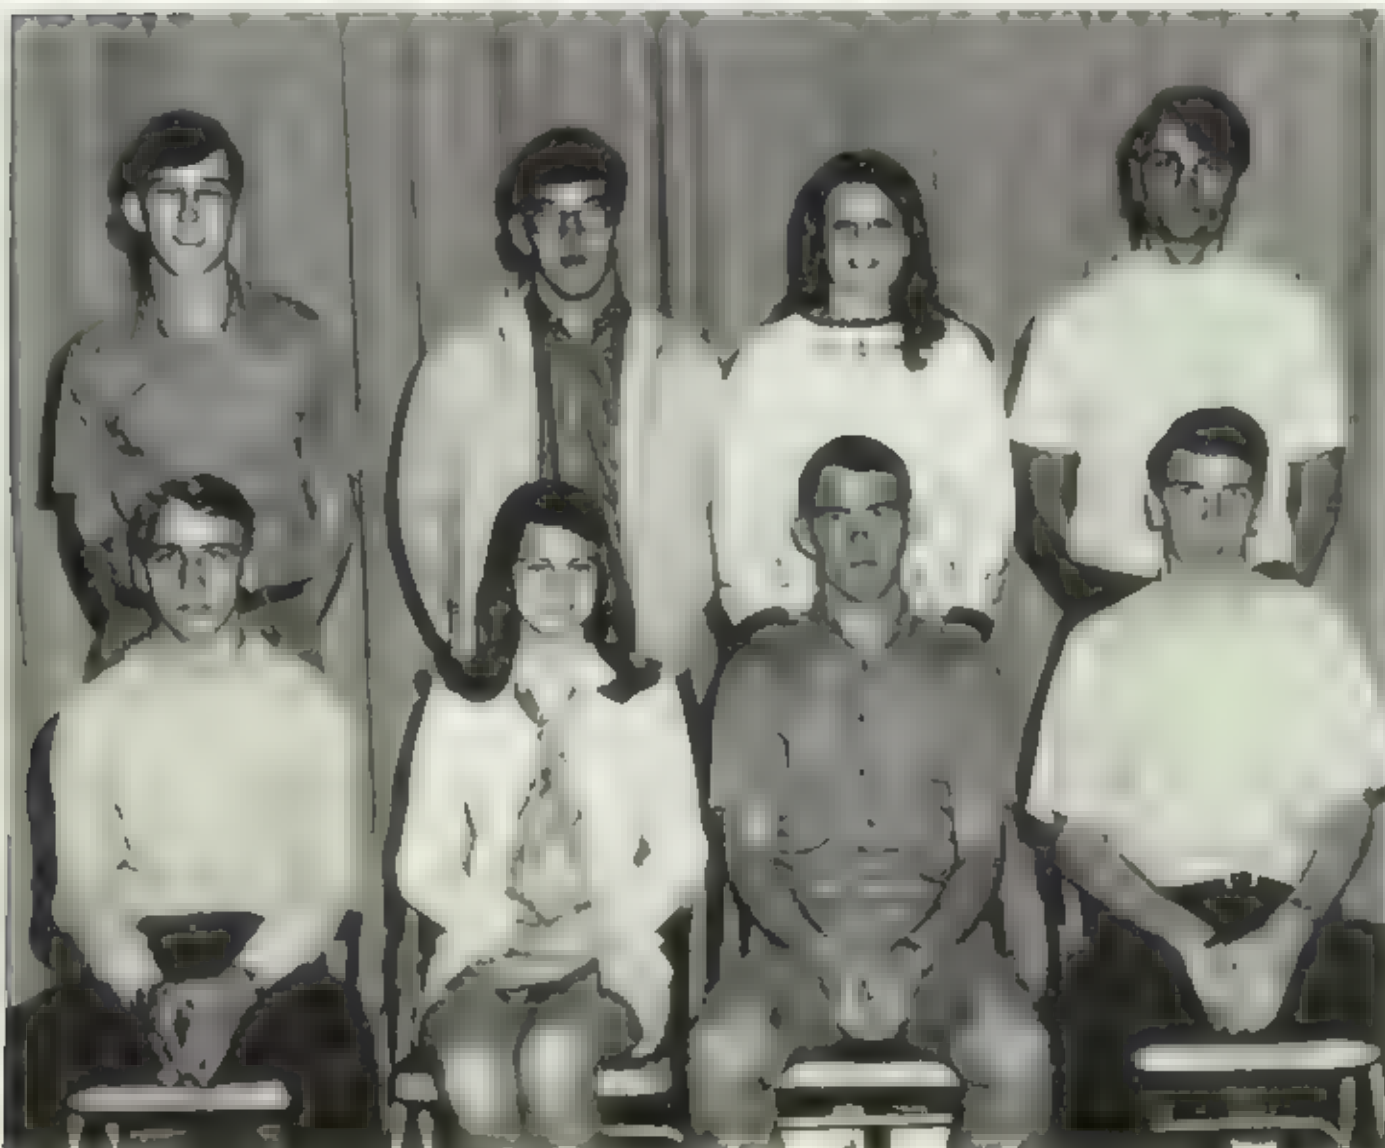

Service is the key word for the Daingerfield Student Council. Each year the Council serves as an organization to promote citizenship and better relations between students, faculty, and administration.

During football season, the SC sponsors the Homecoming activities. At Christmas all the council members look forward to presenting needy children in the area with toys that are donated by the student body. Each spring, under the direction of the SC, the new officers are elected. Toward the end of the year a Senior Sale and senior-faculty basketball game are sponsored by the Council.

This year the Student Council attended the Fall and Spring Northeast Texas Student Council forums.

The Council also initiated another service project by presenting radio programs of the campus news items.

Student Council Officers serving Daingerfield High are Nanette Terry, treasurer; Martha Fomby, secretary; David McDonough, vice-president; Johnny Scott, president.

Representatives are sitting:
Keith Durrett, Billie Sue Leslie, Freshmen; Butch Smith, Terry Richardson, Sophomores; Steve Fowler, Jerry Pratt, Juniors; Debbie Rucker, Greg Maddox, Seniors.

Country*

The Daingerfield Tiger football team enjoyed another successful year by winning District for the fourth year in a row. The highly rated Dekalb Bears barely edged the Tigers handing them their only loss in regular season play. This proved they could be tough even in Class AAA.

Coach Woods patiently waits for his offensive team to get rolling.

Jerry Pratt bulls his way through for six more points.

Floyd Rivers scampers for good yardage against Wommack.

Chris Hall is about to get hooked by an enemy Tiger.

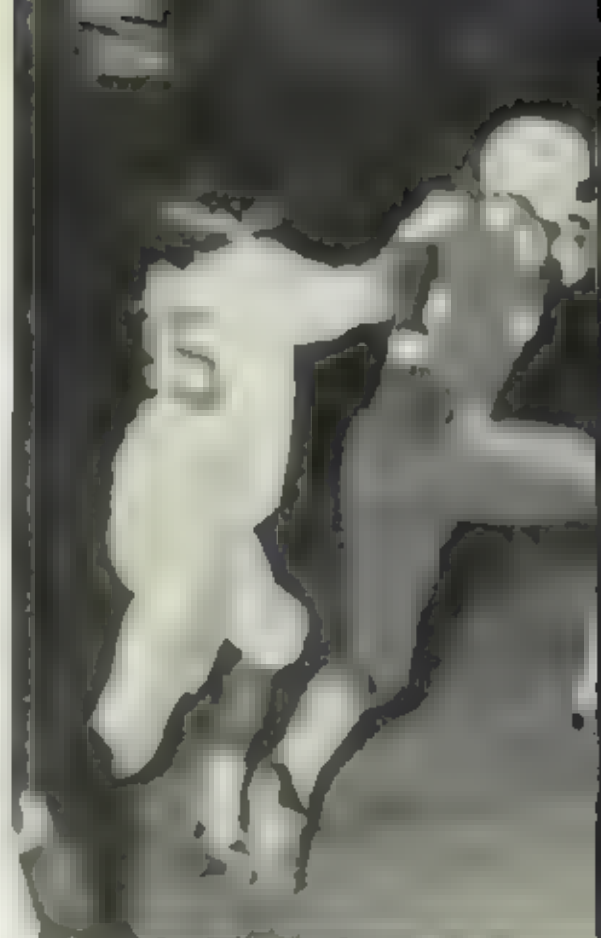

Zembra Everett picks up a valuable T.D. against Henderson.

These Tigers stir up a lot of dust.

Tiger linemen open a nice hole for Terry Lee.

Floyd Rivers can't figure out why this guy is following him. He ain't got the ball.

Starting Cagers

John Scott, Floyd Rivers, Zembra Everett, Coach Young, William Chism, Alvin Lawton.

The mighty Cagers posted a 9-3 District record to finish the season in second place. It was a close race the entire season with Daingerfield, Kilgore, and Mt. Pleasant running neck and neck most of the way. The mighty Tigers dropped out of the running after falling to these two teams. With the return of two starters and a host of reserves who saw a good deal of action this year, the prospects for a championship team look good for next year.

All eyes are on William Chism as he outjumps his opponent.

The competition admires Alvin Lawton's style of layups.

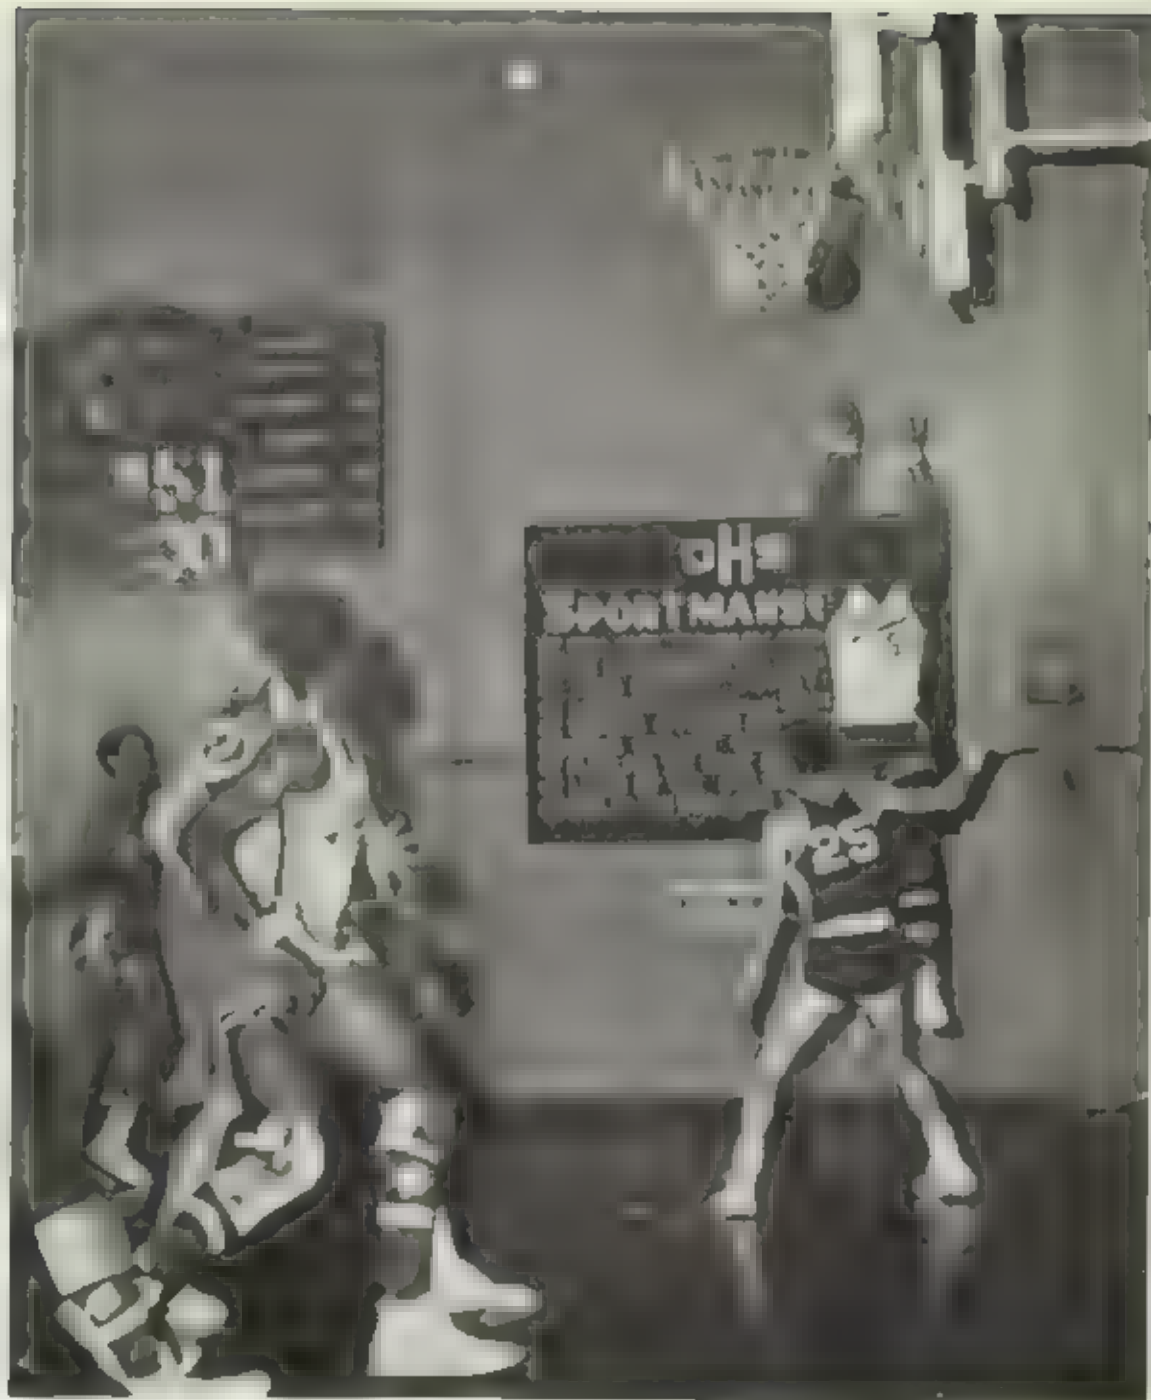

Floyd Rivers tries his luck at the foul line.

John Scott goes up for two more.

Very seldom does a Tiger have to carry on alone.

Floyd Rivers likes to widen the margin.

Not too many boys carry a ball on their shoulders.

John Scott tries his luck at bringing the ball down court.

State Champs 1969

Championships are nothing new at DHS. Golf is no exception. The Tigers took the State AA title by a considerable margin with Mike Ramsey as Medalist.

Mike had a 36 hole total of 153, followed by John Scott with a 155, Ricky Scott with a 170, and Greg Maddox with 180.

A desire to win, school spirit, willingness to sacrifice, talent, and outstanding coaching led this fine team to victory.

Buying and selling of yearbook advertisements has succeeded in bringing student salesmen and business leaders closer together. The salesmen look to the merchants of the surrounding area for local support to make the publication of a yearbook successful. We, at Daingerfield High, extend our patronage and our appreciation to these establishments.
